- ◆ Establishing correct Islamic doctrines deeply in the individual and developing a unified Muslim personality or character.
- ◆ Trying to direct Islamic communities to submit to the law of God and to judge from His Law only.
- ◆ Renewing scientific and propagational awareness as well as uplifting the educational and ideological level among Muslims.
- ◆ Educating new generations according to Islamic doctrines and in accordance with Islamic norms and moral standards.
- ◆ Confronting ideological and atheistic invasion.
- ◆ Calling non-Muslims to Islam and propagating it among them.
- ◆ Educating and Guiding Muslim Women.
- ◆ Cooperating with Islamic organizations, calling propagational groups and striving to unify the Islamic communities according to the authentic law of Islam.

In order to realize these goals the foundation connected with scholars to insure that its work would be in accordance with clear Islamic vision and on a clear salafi methodology according to the way of the best generation of Muslims.

Those responsible for the foundation referred to the scholars regarding all the problems it faced in matters of dawah or relief assistance and it came with work, Alhamdulillah, seeking the guidance and direction of these learned scholars. Due to that the foundation earned acclaim from the Muslims who contributed to it with their wealth and selves.

Doors Of Good

Among the most important and beneficial sadaqah and the greatest in reward is that which enables the relieving the distress of those in trouble or undergoing disasters and afflictions and that which reaches most of the numbers of those in need and helps in lifting the suffering from those who are deprived. Every beneficial running sadaqah that continuously gives has the greatest reward. Indeed such are the best of righteous deeds that are most beloved to Allah as we were informed by the Prophet (sallallahu 'alaihi wa sallam): The most beloved of deeds to Allah are those which are constant even if they be small. [mutafaqun 'alaih]

The Noble Qur'aan also encourages us to undertake doing good deeds and acts of obedience and to undertake all that is goodness, righteousness and kindness. Allah, subhaanahu wa ta'aala, praises those who rush to do good in His statement:

And those foremost in performing righteous deeds will be foremost
These will be the nearest to Allah. [Al-Waaq'ah 10 -11]

And His saying:

And whatever you put forth for yourselves of good you will find it with Allah and that is the Best and Greatest of rewards. [Al-Muzzammil 20]

Of the means of cooperation in doing good are the building masaa'id (mosques), providing for orphans, hospitals, institutes of learning, relief to those in distress, helping the disabled, providing aid to them and easing the hardships of the suffering. The Prophet (sallallahu 'alaihi wa sallam) stated: The believer to another believer is like a structure, one part strengthening the other - and he intertwined his fingers. [mutafaqun 'alaih]

Undoubtedly the spread of Islamic knowledge is a weighty in benefit and great value and it is of the greatest or accepted charitable gifts that has its reward with Allah the Mighty and Majestic. Every one of us, whether learned or learning is able to share in the spread of knowledge either through knowledge or wealth or both. We ask Allah to recompense us with good for what you spend to reward you with the best of rewards for what you give in the way of Islam and the Muslims.
